1. There is a small number of Mongolian People's Republic troops moving in and out of Hailar (119-44, 49-13) often, in order to buy food.
2. Because the people of Hailar say that these troops are billeted in the buildings in the mountains to the east of Hailar, it is thought that they must occupy defense positions which were built by the Japanese to the north and east of the city.
